

IN THE HANDS OF THE POTTER

The Bible frequently compares our Holy God to a potter, and His creations as clay vessels in His hands.

The apostle Paul describes believers becoming vessels of honor through sanctification (2 Timothy 2:20-21). With over forty-five years experience with pottery, Chuck Laird brings this illustration to life with his wheel.

In addition to his experience as a potter, Chuck has been used by God as a Bible teacher for nearly three decades, serving as a Calvary Chapel pastor. In 2005, Chuck, his wife, and their six children followed the call to the mission field. Through God's grace they planted a church in Roatán, Honduras over the eight years God kept them there. The Lord then brought them to Washington State for ten years, where they were used to plant another church.

Now, as the Lord guides, Chuck speaks at churches, retreats, conferences, outreaches, schools, and open-air events.

"THE WORD WHICH CAME TO JEREMIAH FROM THE LORD,
SAYING: "ARISE AND GO DOWN TO THE POTTER'S HOUSE,
AND THERE I WILL CAUSE YOU TO HEAR MY WORDS."

JEREMIAH 18:1-2
